BAUHAUS LOUNGE BENCH

The Bauhaus Lounge Bench is made from stainless steel and treated with a powder-coating. The product is suitable for outdoor use. Don't leave the bench outside at temperatures below 5 degrees celcius, as it might damage the surface coating. Store the bench indoor during the winter season. Exposed to direct sunlight the colour might fade slightly over time.

Use only warm soap water when cleaning the product and dry with a soft cloth.

Please arrange the Bauhaus Lounge Bench carefully to prevent scratching the powder-coating or the floor.

Please do not stand on the furniture!

This product is tested and proved for the contract market.
